Postgraduate Program (研究生课程)

The master program of Teaching Chinese to Speakers of Other Languages (MTC SOL) was set up in 2015. In this program, international students follow a full-time curriculum in a course of 2 years.

Chinese Training Program (进修课程)

- The short-term training program ranges from one week to three months, offering courses of the Chinese language and Chinese culture. Activities of humanities study will be provided as well.
- The long-term training program ranges from one semester to three academic years, offering courses of Chinese grammar, listening and conversation, Chinese writing and also courses of cultural interest, etc.
- Chinese tutorial program is designed for students who have applied for master or doctoral degree of Tongji University, but their Chinese level is not up to the entrance standard. Through one year's language training, their Chinese level can reach HSK level 3 or level 4.

Public Service (公共课程)

- Public courses are given in Chinese, including 2 courses: Chinese Language and A General View of China, which are compulsory courses for all the international students in degree program.

- General courses are taught in English in the form of a series of courses named “China Today”, which is aimed to give international students a comprehensive understanding of China. The series are selective courses, including “Chinese history and culture”, “Chinese society and economy”, “Chinese diplomacy and international relations”, “Cross-cultural communication”, “Intellectual property protection in China”, ect.
